

I want to be a part of the Legacy Society. My plans to support CHI Riverview in my estate planning include:

- I/We have already made a provision in my/our will or trust.
- I/We have already included CHI Riverview as a beneficiary in our insurance or IRA plans.
- Please send me/us information about ways to include CHI Riverview in my/our estate plans.
- I/We are interested in a Charitable Gift Annuity with CHI Riverview.

Thank you!

The stained glass on the cover is located in the CHI Riverview chapel and is one of eleven windows that are based on Psalm 27. This frame shows Nano Nagle, the foundress of the community of Presentation Sisters in Cork, Ireland, in 1775. Nano became known as “The Lady of the Lantern” because she would take her lantern through the city lanes and alleyways where she visited the sick and dying. The ribbon of light shining from her lantern flows through every frame of the entire stained glass project as a sign of her blessing on all future missions.

This window was given in memory of Horace Tscharnier by Mary Tscharnier and dedicated to the Presentation Sisters. The chapel windows were designed by David J. Hetland and Stacey Asp of Hetland, Ltd, and fabricated by Michael Orchard Studio.

The Legacy Society

Let your light shine on with a gift, a legacy

Leaving a legacy for generations to come

At CHI Riverview, our mission has always been to live out our core values of Reverence, Integrity, Compassion and Excellence by taking care of our treasured residents like family. Through the generous gifts of our donors, we are able to develop new programs, pursue new technologies, and explore new partnerships. These gifts bless and sustain our values and mission, now and into the future.

Living at Riverview feeds my soul. It's such a lovely place with a beautiful chapel and a caring community of people. The Presentation Sisters set the tone and the entire staff upholds the core values of reverence, integrity, compassion, and excellence. We are all respected and encouraged to be active participants in the community. To show my appreciation, I'm including CHI Riverview in my estate plan.

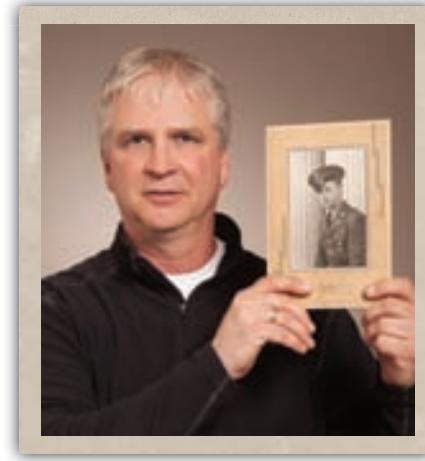

-June Rauschnabel

While we all leave a legacy, the real question is whether or not it is deliberate or unintentional. Here's what one family chose to do.

As a son, I was happy that my Dad made this gift. He truly loved Riverview and felt he was really a part of the social and spiritual group that made up Riverview. Our family is grateful for everything Riverview did to make our Dad feel at home, and because of this we are also happy that he chose to give back in the form of a planned gift in his trust/will.
